Merry Christmas to all. Cowan, McClung & Co. Brogan for $1.19 at Gossett, Ford & Bro's.

This is a legal holiday and should be observed as such universally.

A splendid stock of Umbrellas, at Gossett, Ford & Bro's. x112244

Jonesboro had only a slight "skiff" of snow the first of the week.

Gossett, Ford & Bro. have been, and intend to continue to sell, the Cowan, McClung & Co. Brogan for $1.19. Let those squirm that don't like it.

What would make a nicer Christmas present than a Cowan, McClung & Co. Brogan shoe at $1.19? Gossett, Ford & Bro. have them.

Who would want a nicer Christmas present than a pair of the "Solar Tip Shoes," at Gossett, Ford & Bro's? x112244

Gossett, Ford & Bro's, Sole Agents for John Mandel's "Celebrated Solar Tip" Shoes.

We regret to learn that Dr. J. C. Ellis, a well known and respectable citizen at Trundle's X Roads, Sevier county, is very ill, and some fears are entertained as to his recovery.

The New York Herald of the 22nd instant gives an account of the successful closing of a Hebrew fair. Among the contributions and the last to the book of life was $200 from Mr. Julius Mayer, of our city, who is proverbial for his liberality.

The amusement-lovers of the town along the railroad will have a splendid opportunity, by taking advantage of the holiday excursion rates offered by the railroad company, to hear that peerless and universally popular actress, Miss Katie Putnam, next Monday night. We hope they will improve the opportunity.

The most brilliant event in Nashville society circles was a holiday reception by the L'Allegre Club at the Maxwell house, Wednesday evening, an extended account of which appears in the American.

There were about 125 lady guests, an elaborate description of whose toilets is given. Mr. Lewis T. Baxter is chairman of the executive committee of the club.

Britton Courier: A woman (a tramp) Sallie Baskett, was severely burnt last week on the railroad a few miles west of this place. It seems she built her a fire and laid down by it, and, by some means, her clothes caught on fire, seriously burning her. She was moved to Mrs. Weaver's, where she still lingers between life and death. She has, we are informed, respectable connections in some of the counties in East Tennessee.

Monroe Democrat: Marriage, on the evening of the 15th inst., the residence of J. M. Heiskell, Esq., Sweetwater, by R. V. E. McCroskey, Esq., resulted in the election of J. E. Johnston, republican, by a handsome majority, over A. A. Barnes, democrat. The vote was very light at all points. It was as follows:

Johnston. Barnes. 77 77
Monroe's. 68 68
Osborne's. 59 59
Total. 289 86

Mr. Johnston's majority, it will be seen, was 203 votes. This increases the republican majority in the county court to 11 votes. The deceased justice was a democrat.

A Big Swindle.
The public are constantly being inveigled into taking a substitute or being deceived into buying a fraud, for the reason that dealers can buy the counterfeit at $5 per dozen, or 42 cents per bottle, and sell it to the consumer at $1—making an enormous profit, which is the only object in trying to sell a preparation in imitation of, or substitute for, Simmons Liver Regulator. Nothing is known about the imitations—they are made by adventurers, knowing nothing of medicines or drugs. Buy only the genuine, it being recommended by the greatest and most reliable people. Take only that which is known to be good, made by J. H. Zsllin & Co.

Personal.

Mrs. G. B. Burleson returned Thursday night from a visit to Chattanooga. Mr. James R. Rodgers arrived home yesterday evening from a trip west.

Mr. Robt. D. Van Dyke, of Athens, who has been in the city a day or two, returned home yesterday.

Mr. Joseph McDannel, son of Mr. J. C. S. McDannel, returned yesterday evening from a trip to Texas, in time to spend Christmas at home.

Mr. J. W. Robertson and wife, of Sweetwater, returned home on yesterday's noon train, having been up on a Christmas purchasing excursion.

Mr. W. R. Turner, of the legal fraternity of Sevierville, arrived in the city on yesterday's noon train and is taking Christmas among friends.

Mr. Ben. T. Smith, the popular butcher, and wife, went down yesterday to take Christmas visiting relatives at Cleveland, Chattanooga and elsewhere.

Capt. A. F. Ickis, of the U. S. quartermaster's department, stationed at Rogersville, is down to take Christmas in Knoxville and gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

Mr. Philip May, who is working with Mr. N. Cuquel, the merchant tailor at Chattanooga came up yesterday evening to take Christmas in Knoxville.

Lieut. A. H. Nave, of the United States army, well known in Knoxville, having been formerly commandant of cadets at the university, arrived Thursday night and registered at the Lamar house. He is on a furlough to visit his father and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. N. B. Burrow, of Shelbyville, who has been attending the University of Tennessee for several years, left this morning for home, to accept a professorship tendered him. Mr. B. has many friends in our city who regret to lose him, and we join them in wishing him success.

Bishop H. W. Warren, of the M. E. Church, arrived in the city on yesterday evening's train from Athens, where he lectured Thursday night, and is a guest of Rev. Dr. J. F. Spence. His sister, Mrs. Knight, an instructress in the university, accompanied him.

The organ rolled its notes from the growling diapason to the gentle flate; and the congregation accompanied by deep sepulchral coughs to coughs scarcely audible, because they had not yet heard of the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Twelfth District Election.
The special election for justice of the peace in the 12th district of Knox county, Thursday, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of R. J. Scroggs, Esq., resulted in the election of J. E. Johnston, republican, by a handsome majority, over A. A. Barnes, democrat. The vote was very light at all points. It was as follows:

Johnston. Barnes. 77 77
Monroe's. 68 68
Osborne's. 59 59
Total. 289 86

Mr. Johnston's majority, it will be seen, was 203 votes. This increases the republican majority in the county court to 11 votes. The deceased justice was a democrat.

To-Day Not Too Late.
Doubtless, in the hurry of buying Christmas presents, many children have been overlooked. Now, this should not be so when a trifle will buy a handsome toy at Cullen & Newman's. Although business has been good, they still have a large stock, and will sell very cheap. Husband, if you feel mean because your wife gave you a handsome present than you did her, go at once to Cullen & Newman's and select a piece of the elegant silver-plated ware they have in stock. All can find something nice there to-day, and very cheap.

To the Pastors of Churches and all Others Whom It May Concern.

The committee on the reform school movement would earnestly urge all the pastors of churches and others who have received memorials, but have not yet presented them to the people for their signatures, to do so at once, and send them on to Judge John C. Ferris, of Nashville.

The success of the movement will depend, in a great measure, on their attention to this matter.

They also earnestly request all pastors, clerks of the courts and others interested in this movement to urge on their representatives to the legislature the passage of a bill establishing a reform school in our state.

All the papers in the state which are willing to co-operate in this movement are requested to publish this notice.

Nashville as a Taxing District.
American: While no active measures have been taken in regard to the matter, it is among the probabilities that a petition will be presented to the legislature, asking that Nashville's charter be forfeited, and that a taxing district be constituted in its stead—not, however, for the purpose of defrauding its creditors, but because the city government has become so cumbersome and expensive that it can be run more cheaply and efficiently by commissioners than by the city council.
